

bostonese.com English-Chinese Online Journal / 波士顿华人双语网

Largest English-Chinese Bilingual News Magazine in the USA. 美国信息量最大的中英文双语新闻网

Dragon Dance, Mask Changing and Shaolin Kungfu, Highlights from 2013 Westwood Chinese Cultural Night

Photos by John Tsou, Video by David Li, bostonese.com

Westwood, Mass. — On May 11, 2013 at 7:30 PM, Westwood Chinese Culture Association and Westwood Chinese School hosted the 6th Annual Westwood Chinese Cultural Night in the Westwood High School auditorium. About 500 people packed the auditorium and enjoyed a night full of wonderful music, dance, opera, kungfu and other Chinese cultural performances.

“As this year is our six year, and my last year in Westwood High, we have striven to present internationally distinguished performers who have mastered skills that many people have never seen before,” said Kimberly Huang of Westwood Chinese Cultural Association. Miss Huang is a senior at Westwood High

This webpage is not available

School, and will attend Yale University this fall.

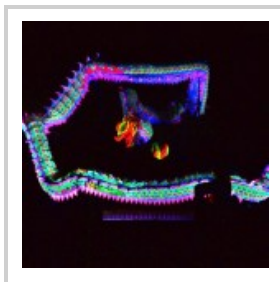

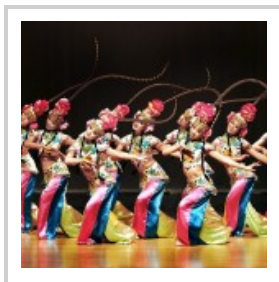

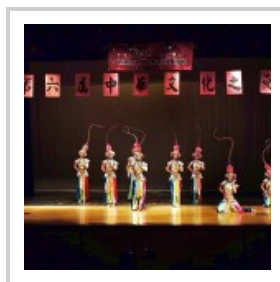

The connection to a.rfihub.com was interrupted.

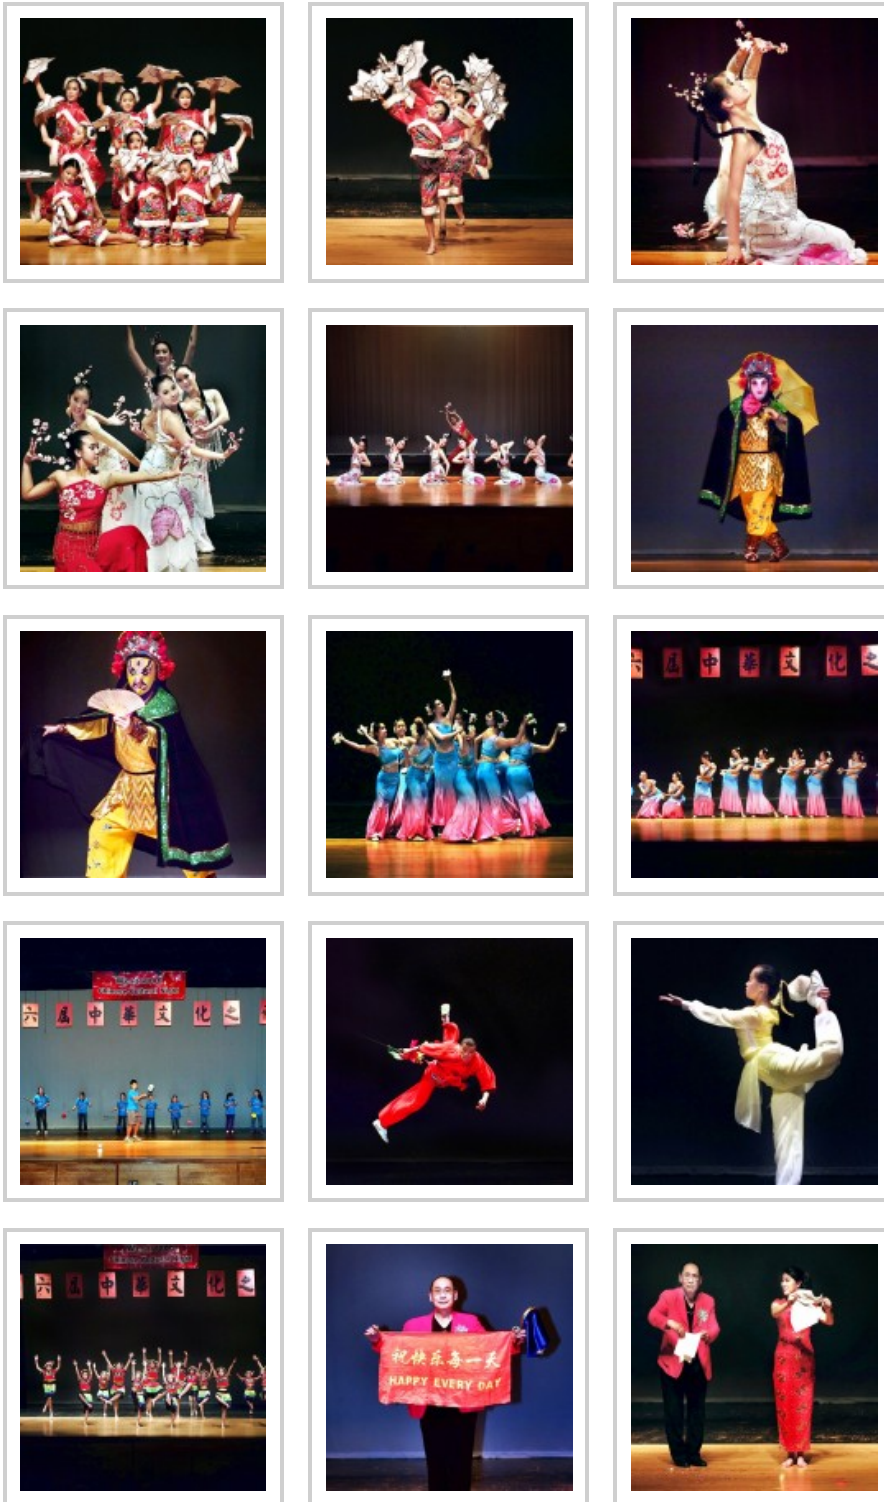

Here are some suggestions:

- Reload this webpage later.
- Check your Internet connection. Restart any router, modem, or other network devices you may be using.
- Add Google Chrome as a permitted program in your firewall's or antivirus

Nai-Yi Zhao, a famous Chinese opera performer from China, together with his wife Yuzhi Tang, performed the rare and mysterious art of Mask-Changing. Because of its surreal nature, it has been ranked in China as a level-two national secret.

The Chinese Folk Art Workshop brought a wide range of traditional Chinese arts. The performers, trained in dragon dancing, diabolo, lion dancing, drums and more, were certified by the White House's President's Volunteer Service Award as a Gold Youth Organization to honor the members' contributions to the community.

After the intermission, Westwood Chinese School's martial arts, chorus, and dance students and teachers performed. Master Shi Hengzhen, a 35th generation martial arts master from China's Shaolin Temple and was invited to perform for President Obama and President Hu of China. Ms. Shi runs the Boston Shaolin Kungfu Center in Quincy Mass..

Other notable performers included Wu Ying, a professional opera singer, and Clare

iPage
Not Your Average Web Host.
Learn More >>
Already have a website? Transfer Easily

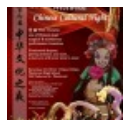

Lee, who danced with her dynamic dance troop, Dance Revelasian. More pictures can be found at:
www.flickr.com/photos/84397634@N02/sets/72157633489652290/with/8736829362/

1 0
Like

分享到:

0

Related Posts :

ate -- 6th Annual Westwood Chinese Cultural Night on May 11

nd Video from 2012 Acton Chinese Music Night

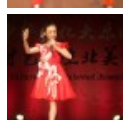

s Ten Year Anniversary with Day-long Celebrations

ce Company Brings Splendid Colors to Boston's Spring owned Shaolin Kung Fu To Be Performed at Lincoln Field on July 1

e Best Light, Pictures of Young Performers from China

ew Year Banquet by Boston Chinese Freemasons Features Lion Beautiful Songs

Angel Dance Company Celebrates Chinese New Year in Style

By Blogsdna

Comments

---

 Post to Facebook Posting as Bin Ji (Not you?) Comment

---

Facebook social plugin

This entry was posted in All/全部文章, English, English, News and tagged Photo, Videos on May 14, 2013 [<http://bostonese.com/?p=8224>] by David.

---

---

☺