

Westwood MA

1-22-2023 10:22pm

Photo Gallery: Westwood Chinese School Holds a Spring Festival for Chinese New Year

Darlene Cancell

Editor

Photo by Westwood Minute/Darlene Wong Cancell. Westwood Chinese School's Dance Troupe performs a traditional scarf dance.

In celebration of Chinese New Year, Westwood Chinese School students, staff, and families celebrated a potluck and students put on performances in the Westwood High School cafeteria. The room was nearly packed with an audience that was interested and focused on the show and display of culture. Below are so photos and videos of the evening's entertainment.

With assistance of friendly adults, the youngest children took turns displaying their cultural costumes, worn specially for the event.

Photo by Westwood Minute/Darlene Wong Cancell.

Sifu Todd Livingston, an instructor of martial arts at Chinese language schools throughout the local region, leads his students in a demonstration of choreographed kung fu movements.

Photo by Westwood Minute/Darlene Wong Cancell.

A student performs a recitation in the Mandarin dialect in traditional costume.

Photo by Westwood Minute/Darlene Wong Cancell.

Student announcers emceed the evening, speaking both Mandarin and English, as the occasion called for

Photo by Westwood Minute/Darlene Wong Cancell.

Young students sang songs that they had learned in Mandarin, set to the familiar tune of "Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes."

Photo by Westwood Minute/Darlene Wong Cancell.

Student emcees dressed to impress in traditional Chinese silk garb.

Enjoy hyperlocal news? Support Westwood Minute!

You may also like:

- Happy Lunar New Year!
- Chinese American Vets Belong to the Greatest Generation, Too
- Photo Gallery: St. Mark's Greek Fest
- Westwood's Olympian Andrew Mackiewicz Takes on a Triple Gold Medalist at the Tokyo Olympic Games!